AMENDMENT

Honorable Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

In response to the Office Action of October 2, 2002, please enter the following amendment:

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Page 1, please amend the second paragraph beginning on line 10 as follows:

B1

Recently, in a field of office tools, optical devices, electric products and parts of a vehicle, a demand for a black colored steel sheet is increasing in view of an ornamental effect, an improvement of absorption with respect to reflective energy and thermal absorption and a function of preventing light from reflecting. A steel sheet has been developed which has a surface colored with black steel sheet looks like a high-grade article even in the steel is naked.
